Corporate Governance Statement

The Directors and management of Gold 50 Limited (Gold 50 or the Company) are committed to conducting the business of the Company and its controlled entities (the Company) in an ethical manner and in accordance with the highest standards of corporate governance. The Company has adopted the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (Fourth Edition) (Recommendations) to the extent appropriate to the size and nature of the Company's operations.

The Company has prepared this statement which sets out its corporate governance practices that were in operation throughout the financial year ended 30 June 2022. This statement identifies any Recommendations that have not been followed and provides reasons for not following such Recommendations.

This Corporate Governance Statement has been approved by the Board and is effective as of 26 September 2022.

The Company's corporate governance policies and charters are all available under the Corporate Governance section of the Company's Website (<https://www.gold50.com/corporate/corporate-governance/>) (Website).

The Corporate Governance Statement refers to both the Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer. Both roles may be held by one individual and in which case the responsibilities outlined below are read together. The directors may also determine that the role of Managing Director be vacant, in which case the responsibilities of the Chief Executive Officer alone are as outlined below.

Principle 1 – Lay solid foundations for management and oversight A listed entity should clearly delineate the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management and regularly review their performance.
1.1 A listed entity should disclose: (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.	Complying	The Board has adopted a charter (Board and Governance Charter) which establishes the role of the Board and its relationship with management. The Board & Governance Charter clearly articulates the division of responsibilities between the Board and management, in order to manage expectations and avoid misunderstandings about their respective roles and accountabilities. As detailed in the Board and Governance Charter, the primary role of the Board is the protection and enhancement of long-term shareholder value, and its responsibilities include the overall strategic direction of the Company, establishing goals for management and monitoring the achievement of these goals. The Board is also responsible for the overall corporate governance of the Company. The Charter additionally sets out the role and responsibility of the Chairman and outlines the Board’s policy on when and how Directors may seek independent professional advice at the expense of the Company. The Board has delegated to the Managing Director (the MD) the authority and power to manage the Company and its businesses within levels of authority specified by the Board from time to time. The MD may sub-delegate aspects of his authority and power but remains accountable to the Board for the Company’s performance and is required to report regularly to the Board on the progress being made by the Company’s business operations. The Board & Governance Charter is available on the Website.
1.2 A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a person, or putting forward to security holders a candidate for election, as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-	Complying	Presently, the Board, as a whole, performs the function of a Nomination committee. It is the role of the Board, in performing the function of a Nomination committee, to identify suitable candidates to complement the existing Board, to undertake appropriate checks on the candidate; to seek confirmation from the candidate that he/she will have sufficient time to fulfil his or her responsibilities as a Director. Where appropriate, external consultants may be engaged to assist in searching for candidates and undertaking relevant checks. The Company will provide information to shareholders about Directors seeking re-election at general meeting to enable them to make an informed decision on whether or not to re- elect the Director, including their relevant qualifications and experience and

elect a director.		the skills they bring to the Board; details of any other listed directorships held by the Director in the preceding 3 years; the term of office already served by the Director; whether the Director is considered to be independent; and a recommendation by the Board in respect of the re-election of the Director. The Company will, in the case of a candidate standing for election as a Director for the first time, provide information to shareholders about the candidate to enable them to make an informed decision on whether or not to elect the candidate, including material adverse information revealed by any checks the Board has performed on the candidate; details of any interest, position, association or relationship that might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence, in a material respect the candidate's capacity to exercise independent judgement on board matters or to act in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders generally; the Board's view on whether the candidate will be considered to be an independent Director; and a recommendation by the Board in respect of the election of the candidate.
1.3 A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	Complying	Each Director is given a letter upon his or her appointment which outlines the Director's duties, obligations, remuneration, expected time commitments and notification of the Company's policies. Similarly, senior executives including the MD and the Chief Financial Officer (CFO), have a formal job description and services agreement describing their term of office, duties, rights and responsibilities, and entitlements on termination. The Company will disclose the material terms of any employment, service or consultancy agreement it enters into with its MD and CFO.
1.4 The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	Complying	The Company Secretary is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the company secretary's office, including the administration of Board and committee meetings, overseeing the Company's relationship with its share registrar and lodgements with the ASX and other regulators. The Company Secretary is also responsible for communications with the ASX about listing rule matters, including making disclosures to the ASX. The Company Secretary supports the effectiveness of the Board by monitoring compliance with Board policies and procedures and coordinating the completion and despatch of Board agendas and briefing papers. The Company Secretary is accountable to the Board, and all Directors have access to the Company Secretary. The decision to appoint or remove the Company Secretary is made by the Board.

1.6 A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose for each reporting period whether a performance evaluation has undertaken in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period.	Complying	The Board is responsible for ensuring that a performance evaluation process is undertaken to review the performance of the Board and individual directors at least once every year. The Company will disclose for each reporting period whether an evaluation has been undertaken during or in respect of that period. No performance evaluation was carried out for FY22.
1.7 A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for evaluating the performance of its senior executives at least once every reporting period; and (b) disclose for each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period.	Complying	The Board is responsible for ensuring that a performance evaluation process is undertaken to review the performance and effectiveness of the MD and other senior executives. The Company will disclose for each reporting period whether an evaluation has been undertaken during or in respect of that period. The non-executive Directors are in the process of completing the performance evaluation of senior executives.

Principle 2 – Structure the Board to be effective and add value

The board of a listed entity should be of an appropriate size and collectively have the skills, commitment and knowledge of the entity and the industry in which it operates to enable it to discharge its duties effectively and to add value.

ASX Recommendation	Status	Reference / Comment
2.1 The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a nomination committee which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.	Non-Complying	The Board has not established a nomination committee as the Directors consider that the Company is not of a size nor are its affairs of such complexity as to justify the formation of a nominations committee. The Board considers that it is able to deal efficiently and effectively with Board composition and succession issues without establishing a separate nomination committee and in doing so, the Board will be guided by the Board & Governance Charter, which can be accessed on the Website. The Company will review this position annually and determine whether a nomination committee needs to be established. The Board's Nomination responsibilities are set out in its Board & Governance Charter.

ASX Recommendation	Status	Reference / Comment
2.2 A listed entity should have and disclose a skills matrix setting out the mix of skills that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	Non-Complying	The Board aims to be comprised of Directors which have, at all times, the appropriate mix of skills, experience, expertise and diversity relevant to the Company's businesses and the Board responsibilities. This objective is enumerated in the Board & Governance Charter. Whilst the Company does not currently disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills of the Directors, the Company's Annual Report sets out the skills, experience and expertise relevant to the position of director held by each director in office at the date of the annual report.
2.3 A listed entity should disclose: (a) the names of the directors considered by the board to be independent directors; (b) if a director has an interest, position, association or relationship of the type described in Box 2.3 but the board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, position or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and the length of service of each director.	Complying	At the date of this report there are four Directors on the Board of the Company, being: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Mr. Robert Reynolds, Non-Executive Director, Chairman - Mr. Mark Wallace, Executive director, the Managing Director. - Mr. Bernard Rowe, Non-Executive Director; and - Mr. Greg Foulis, Non-Executive Director The Board has determined that Mr. Robert Reynolds is an independent Director, on the basis that he is free from any interest, position, association or relationship that might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence the independent exercise of their judgement. The Board has determined that Mr. Mark Wallace is not an independent Director on the basis that he is employed in an executive capacity by the Company. The Board has determined that Mr. Bernard Rowe is not an independent Director on the basis that he is a substantial shareholder of the company. The Board has determined that Mr. Greg Foulis is an independent Director, on the basis that he is free from any interest, position, association or relationship that might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence the independent exercise of their judgement. In reaching the conclusions set out above, the Board considered the guidelines of materiality for the purpose of determining Director independence set out in the Board & Governance Charter and Box 2.3 of the Recommendations. The Board will continually assess whether there are any factors or considerations which

		may mean that a Director's interest, position, association or relationship might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence, the capacity of the Director to bring an independent judgement to bear on issues before the Board and to act in the best interests of the Company and its security holders generally. The Corporations Act and monthly Board meeting processes require Directors to advise the Board of any interest they have that has the potential to conflict with the interests of the Company, including any development that may impact their perceived or actual independence. If the Board determines that a Director's status as an independent Director has changed, that determination will be disclosed and explained in a timely manner to the market. The length of service of each Director is set out in the Company's Annual Report.
2.4 A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors.	Non- Complying	The Board considers that <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Mr. Robert Reynolds and Mr. Greg Foulis are independent Directors; and - Mr. Bernard Rowe and Mr. Mark Wallace are not Independent.
2.5 The chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	Complying	The Chair of the Board, Mr. Robert Reynolds, is an independent Director and is not the CEO of the Company.
2.6 A listed entity should have a program for inducting new directors and for periodically reviewing whether there is a need for existing directors to undertake professional development to maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	Complying	The Company has procedures and policies in place to assist Directors in fulfilling their responsibilities. As Directors join the Board, they undertake a comprehensive induction program, which includes information on the Company's core values, key strategies, objectives, as well as its governance framework and operations. New Directors also meet with key senior management to gain a better appreciation of the Company's services and capabilities. The Board also receives ongoing governance updates as required, including in relation to recent legislative and regulatory changes and developments in corporate governance. Each Director, at any time, is able to seek reasonable independent professional advice on any business-related matter at the expense of the Company. Directors also have access to adequate internal resources to seek any information from any officer or employee of the Company, or to require the attendance of management at meetings to enable them as Directors to fulfil their duties.
